Nice first run in the morning. Better than expected :whistle: (I did not die)

Grats survivors!

Alas I did die.....

Such a shame, lost a wheel.

2nd race.....wonderful!!!!

Well, at start I had some wheelspin and sandwiched wiege with Alvaro and Oso.

So I was last, but went from 16 to 8 in 2 laps, that was fun! Then another mistake and 13th. Fighting back went well and at halftime I was 5th I believe.

Shall I? Dare I?....yes, I do! No tyre change as I was still doing 109. With very early braking it went well and I was 4th, then 3rd!!! Nobody challenging as Taffy and Oso were far enough behind. I coul'nt gain on Manfred but then he had his unfortunate incident I was given 2nd place. Then came the moment....Alvaro lapped me but had no idea I had to brake THAT early for last section....almost died..thank the Dio for Alvaro's relexes!..I stayed wide on the outside and he went by before chicane, I had no tyres and slammed the chicane wall....not pretty..

But we survived and I got from 4 to 16 to 8 to 2!

Grats Alvaro and Oso!

I LOVE THE 917! Thanks for the setup wiege (Spa60);)

Hello AGM,

thx for the video. My best Eventresult Pos. 3 on ABB on video :woohoo: And minus two mistakes of mine you would be the 3. :lol:

Grats to all survivor - the strategy to drive carefull from the beginning did work - I remember our F1 season. I like Goodwood very much, but its tricky too so the green green gras was visited often from the drivers.

Very good combination - thanks.

Beauty second race.

Grats Caspar too for a brilliant last to 2nd position!

Sorry wiege for that sandwich against caspar, I watched replay and...ouch...

The only pitty of the race was that the things were hotter than the front left tyre...

What The Replay: :whistle:

And then , 3rd race....

Server was full, so sad!
Other server with 8 people. Pole was BOSS with Merc 300SL at 25. I was seconde with 25.7 in Alpine.
On lap 2 I could pass the Merc and worked very hard to make a gap. It worked!
At piststop I had a nice margin. Sadly BOSS didn't get help at pits or something and he escaped. Sad for Janosch who had a big battle with him in his TR4!
So, a very booring race, but fun trying to do only 1.26 laps. It almost worked. :)
I am very curious how our race will compare to the other server. I hope there will be a total standings.

So, overall, a good(wood) day! :lol:

Race 1; DNF
Race2: 2nd
Race3: 1st on server.

PS
BOSS is Norbert C.??? (it's not but Norbert's profile pops up when I hit BOSS name.) :S
Why did you escape my friend?

The only disadvantage of Goodwood. But the good news is that after 12 years of GTL I noticed it, so, ABB rocks!

Hi Leute :o)

---

FÃ¼r mich war das eher "Badwood" statt "Goodwood" :S
Alle drei Rennen DNF!
Ich mag die Strecke, komm aber nie an..lol:

Trotzdem tolles Event, Thx dafÃ¼r. :)

Gruss Wiege

ich wollte mich fÃ¼r die schÃ¶ne event-idee und die reibungslose durchfÃ¼hrung bedanken, zusammen mit dem tollen plakart war das schon was besonderes. und im abendrennen war auch ein ganz netter mix an autos unterwegs, hat spass gemacht.
