Schoen!

2er am Start nach viel Praxis diese Woche, mishap in T1 und dann Fight zurueck nach Top3! Schoene Ueberholungsfights mit massimo, Manfred und Shaggy. Dann zu Hansom Hansum im Toyota! Sehr schnell aber der RX7 war zu schnell und dann war Ich vorne! AGM war schon von ganz hinten zurueckgekommen, sehr stark! Ich hatte ein sehr guten Kampf ein par Runden lang mit Alvaro und dann war er vorbei und fuhr ein bischen weg. Aber dann ein Fehler in T1 und Ich war wieder vorne! Beim Boxenstopp war Ich zu vorsichtig beim Bremsen und verlor dann auch noch unerklaerbare Sekunden und Alvaro fuhr frueher weg!! Schnell waren es 7 Sekunden aber dann konnte Ich kontern und blieb es bei 7-8 Sekunden, sehr spannend! Am Ende war Alvaro schneller obwohl Ich meine schnellste Runde und einzige 38er in die letzte Runde schaffte! Glueckwunsch, auch and Manfred als 3er im Nissan!

I think people are busy. In Practice there were many and fast drivers. a LOT of 1.38! But it's always fun with te people who are there. Of course I like 30 cars but with 10 I fight just as hard. :lol:

As a spectator I must say first of all congratulations to the winners and the finishers. But for following the race (thx to the stream by AGM) it was a bit of a pity the RX-7s were so dominant. 10kmh faster on the main straight that the Toyota, 15 kmh more than the Nissan. So in the end there was only one RX-3 in the field (which finished, nice!) But more diversity and specially the old rivalry between RX-3 and Skyline and also between RX-3 and the Toyotas would have been cool. Maybe plus a 240Z even though they drove in a different class back then.

Ty for enjoying.

I wanted to take the skyline, but, as you say its notably slower on straight. I would not have had many fights if I had take it. The 240Z could have been great idea, as its another Japanesse one.

Make different car races has good things, but too the bad thing that you say.

True, Spec-series racing is the only type of real driver-racing in the end ;).

I have to admit bi also hoped to see more Skyline because I have an obsession with it since it was the first model I build completely myself and I consider it to be one of the best, still. So it's not objective :p

The Skyline is great, not easy....., but great!

Drove it for a whole season of ETCC here and had a ball! Nice sound!
