
sound of vw 1302 present in other car i drive

hello,

i have been an old driver on LFS and GTL for over 10 years. I have tasted the joys of on-line on GTL for only a few weeks, and I mainly frequent the ABB TC 65 and ABB TC 70 servers, because I like to drive the "real" cars that I knew in my childhood and my youth.

So, on the servers I frequent, driving mainly Alfa GTAs or Simca 1200s, if there are vw 1302s on the server, even if they are at the other end of the circuit, I hear their engine in my car as strong as mine.

I don't know where this bug came from.

of line, the sounds are normal, but online I hear the vw 1302 as if I was driving them. when I am on the servers and there are other vehicles the sounds are normal.
