The CarClasses are in the archive folder of your updater, or download here

http://www.altbierbude.de/component/option,com_remository/Itemid,26/func,fileinfo/id,1242/lang,de/

If you copy them from the archive folder, make sure to install the latest version (10.1.3)

Glück auf!

I don't get it. How did you test it? And why Autoupdater again? Download Carclasses, unzip it and copy the Gamedata folder into the GTL directory, that should have been it

Glück auf!

Please check in this directory if you have more than one number 3 folder. The folder should contain 37 files and be 4.95 MB in size.

?:\GTL\GameData\Teams\GTC-TC-76\Ford Escort RS2000

Glück auf!

In the folder is a car file. It should contain the following:

Number=03

Team="Blutgraetsche"

PitGroup="Escort"

Driver="Heizen Ltf"

just 1 file.

Re:Ford Escort Blutgraetsche4 Skin

Geschrieben von ttanium - 15.10.2020 19:15

this file

Aw: Re:Aw: Re:Ford Escort Blutgraetsche4 Skin

Open folder number 3, open the car file with an editor and post if you have the same entries. Deleting the complete number 3 folder and downloading and installing it manually might also help

Glück auf!

No it is not. I have no ideas and no time now. Delete folders 3+4, download them manually, install them and then install the carclasses manually as well. No updater or anything else. And when you have done that, then we'll look again

Glück auf!

ok, I agree. If I tell you exactly what you should do and you do something completely different and ignore my tips, then I feel it is a waste of time. I also lose the desire to help. good luck with this problem

You changed the content of the file named Ford Escort Blutgraetsche (Update).

I download manuel and extract. it is not possible to manually paste. Because, After extracting you can see the filename is 04.

Inside the file named Ford Escort Blutgraetsche4 is also 04

so we have two files named 04

You cannot manually copy two files with the same name to the RS2000 folder.

Delete folder in the game, unzip downloaded folder and copy it into the game. Then install CarClasses manually over it. The only way it will work. If that doesn't work for you, then the problem is yours. Good luck!
