Hi all. My student Faela is in the finals tonight at The Voice of Holland Kids! I'm very proud. Two days ago some networks came to our school to film the lesson and do interviews. All very short but fun. I wish her well tonight! No idea if you can watch the report video but here it is anyway; <https://www.zuidwestupdate.nl/nieuws/faela-is-klaar-voor-voice-kids-finale-mag-iets-heel-speciaals-doer/>

Well, she didn't win but maybe better because now she doesn't have to sign a contract. National music star Ilse de Lange is her coach and keeps supporting her and last night already her first single came out! Big things to come... Have a listen if you want.

Hey Caspar,

well done job being Faela's vocal Coach...

I like her voice and how she sings. In my opinion she is doing it from her heart... :blush:

And if Ilse de Lange (I like her music, too) will stay to be her supporter, I can imagine Faela will have a successful future as a singer. :)

It is not always the winner who will have a successful career. I expect she will be the hidden champion... ;) :dance:

Please keep me informed about her... (maybe via WhatsApp, you still have my number) :)

Kind regards you crazy dutch guy,
Holger

May you should change your avatar, because actually you look more than an musician / artist
