
Supercup curse /Barcelona

Geschrieben von Wimmelstern - 28.04.2008 15:01

At Melbourne the walls were too close to the road I was driving. DNF.

At Malaysia I forgot to refuel while pitstoppin' - I was leading the race back then also, but DNF was my destiny.

At Barcelona, started second place, took lead in start, lost it in same lap and took it back in second lap. Increased gap, lap by lap 0,5 - 1 secs. 15 secs lead when I made pitstop (lap 17). Everything went fine this time. 18th lap at last corner - GTL crashed. DNF.

Mi cries a lot. Zero points - Like Finland in Eurovision contest.

hi,

don't be sad, because at the two events i have entered was disapointing.

At bahrain finished almost last, the barcelona finished 12th with broken suspension, which was hard to stay on track, however the results i think the important aspect is to enter and finish the event.

Great fun.

It's me, or the calendar of supercup is the same of F1!?

Cheers, be fair...

Yes, the "real" Supercup starts in the supporting program of F1... ;)

Heads up, three races don't make a season - and at last we're driving fun races, not league... :p

cheers
