More choice - Porsche 911 Supercup Night

Geschrieben von Geedee - 18.05.2010 20:03

When the real F1GP cars race then a Porsche 911 race is also run on the Bude to mirror the real 911 Supercup event on a Sunday evening. :)

To be honest, I don't like the 911 :( but I would like to race a different car on a different server in an event the same evening and on the same track.;

I know there are quite a few guys who feel the same and I am sure we could at least fill a server if we were given the chance.:cheer:

What I would propose is to drive GTC-65 Sports cars as these are seldom used but are great fun to drive.;

If you like this idea please show your support and reply to this thread :woohoo:

Cheers,

Gee-Deeman :geedee:

Hi Gordon,
great idea.

I still have problems with the 911 for a whole race and even worse, when really good drivers are around me on the track and I block them or disturb their races.

Therefore fully support from my side - even I am not quick enough for chaps like you ;)

But it should be a race on an official Bude-server and not an alternative place.

Regards,
Dirk

I like that idea and I'm showing my support as I reply to this thread! ;)

The 911 is a bugger! ;)
Go GTC-65!!!

To be honest I don't like the 911 either - but I see the Supercup as the only chance to get me to race a 911, you know?

Perhaps we should have a separate server on next formula one race for the GTC-65 to give it a try.

Greetings
Matthias "Monsterleg" :P

It's not because of the car but it's a matter of tradition why these cars on these tracks at those sundays is THE event on the (altbier)bude.

I think thats's the way to look at it ;-)

Back to the (very bottom) roots (of altbierbude), as there was no updater tool, a handful of gentlemen drivers....

@ Jowi,

I know it's Tradition and I would not want to spoil this event for anyone... but, there are guys who won't drive that event simply because they do not like to drive the 911.

To have an event to run alongside this using other cars would help satisfy the needs of these drivers and also bring other drivers in to race.

& all you guys showing support.

Cheers :allcoholic:

Hi gents,

Gordon,your idea sounds great.:woohoo:

@JoWi:der Porshecup soll bleiben wie er is.

Aber f  r diejenigen die mit dem 911 nich k  nnen,w  r ein zus  tzlicher server mit gtc 65 echt cool.

Hi Deeman, maybe you should start a Poll about how many People would drive this.

Or possibly the bigger Question, if we get 1 or 2 ABB-server up for this.

My guessing would be 4 server for the main Porsche event and 1 or 2 server for the secondary GTC65 event.

@ Carsten

Thanx for your support m8.

I don't think a poll is needed as the response so far shows that a seperate server is needed... how many? 1 to start with and see how it goes if the Admin will do this for us poor little outcasts, he he.

I would think for every one person who has shown approval for this idea there must be at least that amount again who will never actually join in the forum chat.

Anywhooooo guys, thankfully, the Admin take a look at all of the threads to make sure nothing abusive or obscene etc, is been said or shown so they will see what is being asked for here and they will monitor and assess the situation.

Admin... We love you guys :kiss:

Cheers,

Gee

Sorry, the holy sunday is 911 sunday. As Jowi mentioned the Supercup is the untouchable mother of the events and wont take place with other cars.

Jungens, da braucht es keine Abstimmung, wer den 911er nicht fahren will lÃ¤sst es, genauso wie bei allen anderen Strecken/Fahrzeugkombinationen auch.

GruÃ

B8'

P.S. If you want to have more GTC-65 feel free to create some nice events. Another idea, we drive the Thursday before Supercup sunday with smaller cars on F1-tracks?!

I think a very good idea, but don't forget the other events! A week with only fomula1-track-races might be very boring!

what about a 3.Raceday for the week? GTC65 cars are not often driven in events.

It's impossible because the other 3 Buden needs the traffic of the lines for their events.

B8man says: No. Definitely not!:evil:

I would like to remind B8 that this is "der freundliche GTL-Server" (friendly)! :P

This is supposed to be a forum for debate not some kind of dictatorship and that only makes me very angry. :angry:

We are asking for something that will not only give more people a more pleasurable evening and at the same time enhance the Budes reputation and credibility and also help swell the membership even more and all we get is "Definitely not!"

If we were asking the Admin to stop the 911 racing then I could understand what they say, but this is just plain stubbornness. :huh:

Now the Bude Admin have once again backed themselves into a corner that it will be sooo very hard for them to change their opinion.

I know you guys give us so much when you have your real jobs to do also and believe me I'm so very very grateful for all of your work behind the scenes, but when we ask for something or we have good ideas we seem to get the same response from you... :S

@ all members

Please say how you feel about this subject as the forum is for debating not dictatorship!

Gee-Deeman :geedee: A grumpy old man now!

Gordon, I think you misunderstand B8man's statement.

He only answered, that there is no way for an other Altbierbude-Event-day.

It's not a kind of dictatorship!

He also wrote, that it would be possible to race the f1-tracks at the thursday begore the f1-race take place.

I said no and again NO! to a third race event.

Auf deutsch auch nochmal, ich sagte es wird kein dritten Eventabend geben.

Alles andere ist bis dato diskutabel, allerdings ohne mich. Bin raus.

"No Definately not!" implies that this will never happen no matter what discussions take place.

To have simply said 'sorry but I do not have the time' or 'not at the moment please' implies that there is some hope in discussion at a later date and that we are not being dictated to.

Keep the 911 on the servers and put 1 other server on with other cars.
