Wish we could do it in english, but probably we could stay 2 hours to explain what we explain in 20 mins. XD

Who knows, we could try it...

Hello,

very interesting - I only understood that you said Manfred Haupenthal is a very good driver - didn't understand what you said about the other drivers B)

But I missed the team Pontiac in your presentationwhistle:

cheers

It's fun to try and understand some of the words and recognise what is said about the names. You are really interested in the individual drivers, respect.

I think it is a great presentation that shows how much fun you guys have in ETCC.
Good luck DTR.

Must be very nice and interesting for someone speaking espanol.

Sadly I don't understand a word (except names and some other words I know ... not enough to make sense of anything said).

Would be nice to have something like that in german ... or wait ... there is something like that in german:

... but it's old :(

...and i think there is a lot of work behind that vid :) ... it's almost like F1 in TV.
